DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, states that one adjusts the working stroke of the honing tool continuously at least toward the end of the step of machining. This is contradictory. Are you adjusting the working stroke continuously or are you adjusting the working stroke toward the end of the machining step? Claim 1 also list the limitation that feeding of the guides is realized independently of feeding the honing stones, in lines 19-20. It is unclear as to whether the method claim previously claimed feeding of the guides.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-12 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Maier et al. and Corley were cited to show other examples of honing tools.
